VOLUME XLV. NUMBER 21.

IRONTON, MISSOURI.
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1911.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The autumn foliage is glorious. County court meets next Monday.

Good apples are selling at one dollar a bushel.

The boys were out playing the usual hallow'en pranks last night.

The city has put in some fine concrete culverts on Shepherd street.

How about that new suit? There is a fine line of clothing at Brown's.

Business Men's League meeting Thursday night, this week. Don't forget it.

Chas. E. Downey has just finished a grand old walk in his front yard.

A fine new stock of men's and boy's hats and caps just received at Lopez Store Co.

Mr. St. Louis and family are now domiciled in the Logan cottage on Shepherd street.

For Sale—A good fresh milch cow; also a fine Jersey calf. Apply to A. A. Jacobs, Arcadia, Mo.

The building of the road around Shepherd Mountain has been postponed because of a lack of funds.

The American Hotel—so long in Ironton—is no more. That hostelry is now termed "The New Willard."

J. P. Benoist, Broom Maker, Frankley, Mo., will make brooms for 12 1-2 cents, or part of corn. Write him.

Bishop Tuttle will hold services at St. Paul's church, Ironton, next Monday evening, November 6th. All are requested to attend.

Fred Kindell, Sr., is building quite an extensive addition to his residence in west Ironton. He will also put in a steam heating plant.

For Sale—Square Piano. Price, $35. In good condition. Apply to Mrs. J. M. Logan, Bellevue, Mo., or Baldwin Piano Co., 1111 Olive street, St. Louis, Mo.

Baldwin Bros. closed down the hub factory Monday evening, and will probably not run any more this winter. The demand for wood was far in excess of the supply.

Married—At Arcadia, Mo., Tuesday, October 24th, 1911, Alfred Buch, of Eureka, St. Louis county, and Rose Thompson, of Iron county, Rev. L. F. Aspley officiating.

Conductor S. W. Andrews was home a few days last week. He and J. V. Webb and some other conductors left Monday on their annual hunting trip in Reynolds county.

County Superintendent Burnham announces that a teachers' meeting will be held at Bellevue, Saturday, November 18th. It will be a night session commencing at 7 o'clock.

In the circuit court last Thursday Judge Dearing sustained a demurrer in the Rozier-Nations libel suit from St. Francois county. An appeal will probably be taken to the Supreme Court.

H. B. Jones Tuesday brought to this office a twig from a pear tree in his yard with two green pears thereon about the size of a plum. It is most unusual for the fall blossom to develop into fruit.

The Merry-Go-Round man packed up and shipped south last Thursday. He did not do much business during his stay here. If he had struck us in the summer time he would have had a harvest.

It is now stated that, if the weather continues favorable, the concrete work on the Shut-In dam will be completed by Thanksgiving. It is not the intention to confine the water until next spring.

To Mrs. C. D. Alexander, of Jerseydale Farm, we are indebted for a very fine large pumpkin, presented to us last Saturday. It was a beautiful specimen of pumpkin and weighed thirty-six pounds.

Messrs. W. A. Russell, of Potosi, and John G. Russell, of Bellevue, and Messrs. Carr and Bean, of Caledonia, drove through Ironton about noon Saturday on their way to Reynolds county, where they will camp and hunt for ten days.

Sheriff Fitts of Reynolds county last Saturday placed a man by the name of Wiley Weaver in the jail here. On Monday last Weaver shot his wife, from whom he had been parted for some time, and then shot himself. Neither was seriously hurt.

At a meeting of the Ironton school board Monday evening Oscar Heywood was made janitor of the school building at $20 a month. Mrs. McCallister, who has had the position at the same price, wanted more pay and the board made a change.

An interesting game of football was played between the Ironton and Doe Run teams last Saturday afternoon. Honors were easy, the score resulting Ironton, 0; Doe Run, 0. The Ironton team will go to Doe Run to play another game probably November 11th. Considering the fact that many of the Ironton players are new beginners they made mighty good showing Saturday.

J. T. Russell, who has been operating a saw mill near Blackwell for some time, is at the home of his mother, Mrs. A. G. Russell, in Farmington, seriously ill of typhoid fever. He had been sick for almost a week before he came home.—Farmington News.

Ramey Inman, son of Jesse Inman, of Roselle, had the ankle of his right leg badly fractured while trying to drive a young horse Sunday. The horse became unruly when Inman jumped from the buggy, striking his leg on one of the wheels and breaking it.

A Grand Thanksgiving Ball will be given under the auspices of the Granite Cutters, at Workmen's Hall, Graniteville, Wednesday evening, November 29th. Refreshments will be served by the ladies of the R. N. A., 6413. A fine time assured all who attend.

Clark Stringer, who was convicted of robbery in the Iron County Circuit in November, 1908, and given a sentence of eight years in the penitentiary, was paroled by Gov. Hadley last Friday. Stringer obtained his release through the efforts of his mother.

B. C. Fitts, of Reynolds county, who is visiting his son in the Speck place, in south Ironton, was exhibiting a rat trap with fourteen rats therein on Main street Thursday morning. A pretty good catch for one night. Rats and mice seem to be unusually numerous and annoying this fall.

John Mayes, the liveryman, has taken a change of venue to St. Francois county in his suit against Sheriff Marshall. Last September the Sheriff hired a team from the plaintiff to drive to Farmington. Shortly after the return to Ironton one of the horses died. Mayes sued for $200 damages.

Rev. H. P. Crowe, Presiding Elder of the Farmington District, will hold the first Quarterly Conference of this current year at Fort Hill M. E. Church, South, Saturday night, 7:30, and will preach Sunday at 11 A. M. Everybody is invited to attend.

JOHN T. SELF, Pastor.

Mapn Ringo, cashier of the Iron County Bank, attended the bankers' meeting at Sikeston last Friday. Mr. Ringo says that Sikeston is a hustling town and royal was the treatment extended the visiting bankers by the citizens. Saturday he went to the Cape to see his daughters who are in school there.

The editor is in receipt of a card from Mrs. Mary E. Starke, of St. Louis, announcing the marriage of her daughter, Ella, and Mr. Byron Wallace Moser, Tuesday, October 24th, 1911. Byron is an old Ironton boy who has "made good" in the banking business in St. Louis. We certainly wish for him and his every happiness.

County Superintendent Burnham and wife, Principal Loomis of the Ironton schools and wife, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hanson, Misses Silor, Thompson, Twomey and Coddling, Mr. Marshall and Miss Hindsdale of Pilot Knob, and Miss Lizzie Russell, of Bellevue, were among those who attended the Teachers' Meeting in Farmington last week. They report the meeting a success and most helpful. Over four hundred teachers were in attendance.

Mrs. Lotta Munger, wife of Geo. Munger, died at her home in this place last Wednesday evening, October 18th, at about six o'clock and her remains were buried in the Dexter cemetery Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services were held at the Missionary Baptist church, Rev. M. Grace, Pastor, conducting the services. She leaves a husband and several children who have the sympathy of our people in their bereavement.—Bloomfield Vindicator.

The following from Monday's Globe-Democrat refers to the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Reese, formerly of Ironton: "While playing with a pet dog at her home on Florissant road, near Ferguson, yesterday afternoon, Miss Elizabeth Reese, 23 years old, was bitten on the ankle. She was rushed to a physician in Ferguson, where the wound was cauterized. Miss Cornelia Reese, a sister of the injured girl, yesterday said the dog would be killed."

A suit has been filed in circuit court by W. W. Roney against J. E. Organ and W. W. Young for twenty thousand dollars damages to his character because of the publication in The Monitor of a report of the trial of the sidewalk case of the City of Salem against W. W. Young in Eminence recently. Roney claims to be the witness referred to as having given false testimony. The evidence in court here will show if his testimony agreed with the facts.—Salem Monitor.

Married—At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Goff, at 11 A. M., Wednesday, October 25th, Mr. O. E. Kowitz, of Lebanon, Linn county, Oregon, to Miss Ina Scoggin, sister of Mrs. Goff, and daughter of Mr. G. W. Scoggin, the well-known merchant of Glover, Iron county, Mo., Rev. J. F. January of Lesterfield performing the ceremony. They left Center ville this morning for St. Louis, where they will remain until spring, when they will go to Oregon.—Centerville Outlook.

Circuit court will probably be in session for the rest of the week. A jury last Friday acquitted Jesse Miller of the charge of carrying and exhibiting deadly weapons. Mike Kelly was found not guilty of burglary and larceny. Friday evening the jurors were exoused until Monday noon. Tuesday R. C. Knight was tried on the charge of illegal sale of liquor. A hung jury resulted. Tuesday afternoon a jury was empaneled in the case of the Iron County Realty Co.

against L. E. Toler, et al. The trial is still in progress this (Wednesday) morning.

Fred Twomey had a mighty unpleasant experience while driving through the Shut-In from a trip to Roselle about midnight Sunday. His team became frightened at a big rock that had rolled into the road and backed the rig off an embankment probably fifty feet high. Of course, the buggy pulled the horses after it. As he felt the buggy going Fred jumped and escaped injury. Fred then went to look for the team and rig. He says he was certain they would be a total loss. But he found the horses unhurt at the bottom of the hill, nor was the buggy damaged to any great extent. He thinks he got out mighty lucky, but Fred says he has no desire to repeat the experience.

At the October term of the circuit court, 1909, Wm. Donohew was found guilty of fraudulent voting at Henderson precinct in the general election in 1908 and fined $50 and costs. The defendant gave notice of appeal and gave bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance with E. W. Sumner, W. T. Gay and J. H. Raney as sureties. The appeal to the supreme court was never perfected and as Donohew failed to put in his appearance at the circuit court last week his bond was declared forfeited, and a scire facias issued against his bondsmen. Unless Donohew is apprehended before the next term of court his securities will probably have to pay the amount of the bond.

Mr. Con O'Shay, whom all of the old citizens will remember, is here this week on a visit. Con has been reported dead for the past ten years but he says the report is a big mistake. Con will be 85 years of age next March; he lived in Fredericktown before and during the war. He is a typical Irishman, with a rich brogue and a fund of mother wit, and is known from the Rio Grande to Michigan. It is said he ran the first locomotive on the old Cairo & Fulton railroad, now the Belmont branch, when the road was the property of Thos. Allen. He worked in the Jack Diggings at Mine La Motte before the war, so he says. He stopped in the Democrat-News office a few minutes. In appearance he is a good second for the late Mike Smith, although Mr. O'Shay is not as fleshy. He will be here about a week. He has a brother, who is superintendent of the Rogers Locomotive Works.—Fredericktown Democrat-News.

A judgment for $1100 was rendered in the circuit court Monday against the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern Railway Company because of the failure of that corporation to comply with an order made by the State Railroad Commissioners, November 23d, last, directing that company to build and maintain a station at Pilot Knob. The company appealed from the finding of the circuit court to the Supreme Court. Suit was brought against the railroad company by Prosecuting Attorney Dameron last March under a law enacted by the legislature several years ago requiring stations must be maintained at all towns having a population of 200 or more. This law provides that where the railroad company fails to build and maintain a station at any such town, after having been duly notified by the State Board of Railroad Commissioners, the said railroad company shall be liable to a fine of $10 for each day that it neglects to build such station. The railroad company was ordered to build the depot at Pilot Knob, November 23d, last. The Prosecuting Attorney filed suit against the Company March 21st, last—110 days after the notification, which made the judgment even $1100. No further action will be taken in the premises until the Supreme Court passes on the question, which, of course, will not be for several years. Then if the law is upheld the railroad company will be liable to a penalty of $10 a day from the date of the notification up to the time it complies with the law. There seems to be considerable doubt as to the constitutionality of the law and just what the Supreme Court will do is uncertain. Meantime, we suppose our Pilot Knob friends will just have to possess their souls in patience and continue to journey to Ironton when they want to board a train.

A total of $705 in fines was collected in the circuit court last week from violators of the law. Of this amount $365 was paid by John Thomas of Graniteville, against whom there were twelve indictments for selling liquor without license. Thomas stood trial on two of the indictments. In one of the cases the jury brought in a verdict of guilty and fixed the punishment at a fine of $125 and costs. The same verdict was returned in the second trial and a fine of $40 imposed. Thomas then offered to plead guilty to the other ten indictments. He did so; was fined $40 each in five of the cases and paid all of the costs in all the cases. He was relieved from paying the fines in the other five cases with the understanding that he would have to pay the fines if he again violated the liquor law. He gave a parole bond of $500 for his appearance at the next term of court. The total amount of fine and costs paid by Thomas was $579. Henry Vigneaux, of Graniteville, against whom there were a dozen indictments for selling liquor without license, pleaded guilty and was let off on the same terms as Thomas—paying all of the costs in his cases and $40 fine in each of them and paroled as to the other fines, with the understanding that he would not be called upon to pay the same unless he again violated the liquor law. The amount paid by Vigneaux was $339.50. Frank Pelozolo, who was convicted in Squire Rasche's court a couple of months ago, on two charges of selling liquor without license at Pilot Knob, and appealed to the circuit court, withdrew his appeal and paid his fine of $40 and costs in each case. Frank Manouse, also convicted of the same charge in Rasche's court, withdrew the appeal to the circuit court and paid $40 and costs. Sol and Henry King each paid $10 and costs for disturbing religious worship. Pretty good fine collections.

The weather man says we will have a cold winter. Splendid underwear at Brown's.

To Whom It May Concern.

I am not writing this article for pleasure, but because I have to to protect myself in the eye of the public. As some of the Baptist people have had a great deal to say about me and my husband concerning Fuller Swift's and Mabel's case, and since Mrs. Wilson called on me on the evening of October 24th in behalf of Swift and Mabel, and tried to get me to apologize and take back what I said about them—that is, that I believed the talk about them—I will give all to understand that I am a woman of strong enough character and principle to say what I mean and stand by it; there are not enough people in Ironton to make me take it back. During my conversation with Mrs. Wilson I told her I believed it, and would, until they came out and proved themselves clear to the public. I told her if it wasn't so why didn't they prosecute Mrs. Thornton? Mrs. Wilson said they could not do anything in the courts here—the officers would not give anybody justice.

The 22d chapter of Proverbs says: "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor rather than silver and gold." Mrs. Wilson got so stirred up in the conversation that she said if she believed it she would not let the people think she did; it would only hurt the church.

Now a word to Joseph Thompson, Deacon of the Baptist church: You have said you had investigated those letters that Mrs. Thornton has, and yet two weeks ago last Wednesday night you told a member of your church that you had never seen those letters. I would like for you to explain to me how you could investigate them without seeing them. You also told that same member that Grover and I had harmed your church more than anybody else. I am not a member of that church, but of the Cove Baptist Church, and my husband is not a member of any church. Now Joseph Thompson, I want you to prove to the public how we have harmed your church, if you are a man of your word. The one that has ruined your church is a member of it, but you don't want to think it because he is of your politics and has a little money. No, you want to lay it on a poor, innocent woman. Thank God, there is One who gives me strength day by day to fight the battle through this sin cursed world. You can prove by the church what kind of a leader it has. Where the love of God dwells there is peace and harmony. I want to say to you parties if there is anything you want to know why I believe what I have said, call on me and I can tell you things that I don't wish to put in print.

And I also want to say to the Church Clerk, Mr. Martin, I want you to scratch my name off your church book, where you have it without any right.

Mrs. GOLDIE FITTS.

Des Arc Items.

While sitting on the jury bench last week I had a chance to see the inside of the courthouse and I must say it is a disgrace to our county. The paper on the walls is all torn and the stoves are entirely too small and I suppose they have been in use ever since the war. There are only two lamps in the room and one of them has no chimney; they tell me that you have to strike a match to see if they are lighted. It needs painting very badly and the floor down in the hall looks like it has been there over fifty years. I hope our county court will get a move on them and put in a heating and lighting plant and new floors. I don't believe there is a taxpayer in the county who will object to it.

I stopped with our sheriff and deputies during my stay at court. They are a fine set of men and are strictly business men. They will do all in their power to accommodate you. I noticed that our judge had his little boy with him. I think every man that has a boy should take him to court as it gives him a lesson that he doesn't learn at school. Our boys will be our lawyers and judges some day and we should do everything we can to advance them while young. Another thing I want to mention is the pleading of Wm. R. Edgar, Jr., in the Kelly case. It was elegant and pathetic and no juryman could convict that boy after hearing young Edgar. He has a bright future and the old man will soon have to take down his shingle and give way to his boy.

Boss Sisk, brother of Doc Sisk, (roadmaster) died last week. He leaves a wife and seven children.

He died with pneumonia after being sick about ten days. Mr. Sisk leaves a policy for $1,000 in the Woodmen, which will help the widow to provide for the children.

The protracted meeting at the Baptist church closed last Wednesday night. There was a good attendance but no conversions.

Bros. Abernathy and Collins did some good preaching but their work was all in vain. The church, however, was much revived spiritually.

Rev. Duncan preached at the M. E. church Sunday.

J. H. Chilton has moved his family to near Caruthersville.

Chas. Heath and family, of Flat River, John Tucker and family, of Pilot Knob, and Doc Sisk, of Bellevue, of Bismarck, attended the funeral of Boss Sisk at Vulcan last week.

Dr. N. A. Farr, J. L. Strader, C. L. Stevens, Cal Province, Luther Daniels and a number of others attended court in Ironton last week.

Miss Dorothy Myers is down from St. Louis visiting her grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Northcott, of St. Louis, are visiting the latter's parents, L. L. Schmidt and wife.

Mrs. Lee Strader and baby have returned to their home in Hogan.

Ed. Hickman is home from Granite City, Ills.

Jas. Huter arrived from North Dakota last week with a car load of horses, furniture, etc. He will join his family here, who live on the old Jordan farm.

W. T. O'Neal was here Saturday. He has the best stock farm in the county and is sowing a big crop of wheat. He has two renters, as one man cannot look after all the land.

ISAAC.

85 cents will buy a man's fleece lined suit of underwear at Brown's.

Notice to Hunters.

All persons are hereby warned not to hunt or shoot on my farm, as I have considerable stock all over the place and a stray shot is liable to kill a cow or a hog. I do not want to be arbitrary in the premises but I am forced to adopt this rule for my own protection. So, please stay off my farm. All trespassers will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Bellevue News.

Mesdames Meador and Laster were shopping in Ironton last Thursday.

Mrs. Aub Edmonds and Miss Fannie Campbell are visiting friends and relatives in St. Louis this week.

Miss Lizzie Russell was in Farmington last week attending the Southeast Missouri Teachers' Association.

Miss Kate Russell, who is teaching in Hillsboro, spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Master Edwin Burnham, of Ironton, visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gentry Moyer, recently.

"Grandpa" Jesse Haral, of Bismarck, is out here on a visit to friends and relatives. He will soon be 84 years old. His health is as good as could be expected of one of his advanced age.

The First Quarterly Conference of the Bellevue circuit was held here in the M. E. church, Saturday, Rev. Crowe presided. He also preached two good sermons, Saturday evening and Sunday at eleven o'clock.

ALPHA.

Notice—Be sure and see the ladies' suits, coats and skirts at Brown's.

School Notes.

Total enrollment this month has reached 255. The highest per cent of attendance made by room three. One hundred thirty-four pupils were present every day. The school owes its thanks to

Mr. Baldwin for the four nice posts for out-door gymnasium work. Why can't Ironton school have an out-door gymnasium for the boys and girls, with swings, merry-go-round, horizontal bar, etc.?

The High School library has received about 80 volumes of new books this last week. These are the result of the donation by the board and the money left over from an entertainment of last year.

Dr. Edwards of the Presbyterian church conducted Monday morning exercises for the Ironton High School and gave a very interesting talk on the schools of Europe.

Rev. Self of Fort Hill church was with us a week ago.

All the teachers of the Ironton school attended the Southeast Missouri Teachers' Association at Farmington. They report a very fine meeting. Some very able speakers addressed the association. Ironton was voted on as the place of meeting for next year. Meeting will be in Cape Girardeau next year. The Farmington meeting is the largest in the history of the Association. Nearly 400 teachers enrolled and there were many in attendance who did not enroll.

High School team will play a game of basketball with the Arcadia Heights boys Wednesday, November 1st. This game is open to the public and will be played on the court near the Baptist church. Tickets are being sold for the game to get suits for the team. The team has games in the future with Doe Run High School and Flat River High School.

Annapolis News.

Raining here to-day.

Reese & Warner are doing a fine mercantile business. Mr. Warner will move to town in the near future.

William Lewis and Oney Murphy were united in marriage at the home of John Thompson, October 19, 1911, S. Kitchell, J. P., officiating.

The tie inspector was so hard that tie loading was out short.

Leslie Dunn and family of Des Arc are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Frank P. Reese of Flat River is visiting Mr. Add Reese of Annapolis.

There will be plenty of hunters on Black River by November 4th. Turkey and deer will surely suffer. This is a busy day on the lumber loaders as they are loading out all the inch oak on the yard.

County court meets next Monday and will probably settle with Joe Sutton for the sheep that have been killed by dogs the past four months.

Wm. Sutton has sold his mule team to Webster Young for $300, and bought Ed Ruble's team for $400.

Several pianos bought here recently.

Goodland Items.

Mr. George Vanover and family have returned from their trip to the east and are again living at Goodland.

John Mayfield recently received a telegram announcing the death of his daughter, Mrs. Sarah Martin, in Florida.

Dave Mayfield was thrown from his horse last Saturday and considerably bruised up.

Aunt Josephine Adams is spending a couple of weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Crocker, at Goodwater.

G. G. Adams made a trip to Ironton last week after doors and windows for his new house.

Mrs. N. W. Adams is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Reif, of St. Louis.

Mrs. Reif received word from St. Louis that her son, C. R. Oesch, had his leg crushed by a large block of ice.

Miss Rosa Brooks, who has taught a month for Mae Dennison, has returned home.

Theo. Brooks is with home folks after a two years' stay in Nebraska. He will probably stay all winter and work for Love Cary, near Ironton.

T. R. Terry is some better at this writing.

Ol. Crocker is not so well. Effie Keith has typhoid fever. Mrs. Akers was called to Brushby to see her daughter, who has typhoid fever.

Eliza Merritt returned to her home at Goodwater, Sunday, after a long stay with Mrs. Short.

F. M. Adams visited in Lesterfield on his way home from court.

Mrs. Johnson and daughter, Ina, of Lesterfield, were guests of her father, Dr. Adams, recently.

The Woodmen met Saturday night in their new hall, over Bell Bros. store, at Edge Hill.

The Holiness people are holding a meeting at Edge Hill this week. They do not speak in an unknown tongue either. Indeed we all felt as though we had been to a shooting match and every shot directed to each one of us. Would that we had more of that kind of preaching!

J. M. Shrum has not yet found water in his well.

R. C. Love made a business trip to Lesterfield last week.

Mrs. Westerman was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Adams, a few days recently.

W. Mayfield butchered a fine beef Saturday and sold it out to the neighbors.

Dr. Adams has some beautiful roses which have, so far, withstood the frost.
